

Diversity – Students have distinct needs and goals and deserves unique relationships.

Collaboration/Accountability – We hold ourselves accountable for building relationships that expand opportunities for students.

High Expectations/Hard work – The highest level of personal responsibility and a high work ethic produce positive results.

Adaptability/Innovation – Producing successful 21st century learners requires creatively approaching challenges and opportunities.

Integrity – Respect and honesty in everything, by everyone, is the core of ethical practice.

Compassion – Empathy and kindness build strong school communities.